Lot # 83 BIG BERTHA DRIVER

Buy It Now $250

The key to making an easy-to-hit driver is finding ways to mix lighter materials with heavier ones. The weight saved can be moved to the perimeter for better forgiveness. Callaway has done that with a driver whose shape comprises multiple pieces of light carbon composite, including a crown made from a material that's 65% lighter than titanium. It makes for the most stable driver in Callaway's history.

An original backstage pass from an Elvis concert from the mid-1970s. While they read "Building Personnel", precious few were given out. Backstage was virtually empty during an Elvis concert. The colors were changed for each concert so anyone holding on to a used pass from one city couldn't use it in another. Passes have been reprinted since Elvis' death, but this is an original.

Also included is an Elvis Collectors Box. Graceland has opened the doors to its archives, allowing the historic documents and memorabilia within to be reproduced in facsimile, collectible form. This boxed set includes a CD of interviews and other recordings of Elvis's thoughts, previously only available as bootlegs. Also included are facsimiles of some of his most personal documents, including his high school diploma, his contract with Sun Records, and a hand-written letter sent to his girlfriend.
